

SalesGenie AI – AI Sales
Assistant & Lead
Intelligence Platform

Project Statement

- Modern sales teams spend a significant amount of time researching prospects, analysing company information, preparing outreach messages, tracking customer interactions, and identifying high-potential opportunities.
- Manual lead qualification and sales outreach often result in inconsistent engagement, lower conversion rates, and reduced productivity.
- This project aims to develop SalesGenie AI, an AI-powered Sales Assistant and Lead Intelligence Platform that automates lead analysis, prospect research, personalized outreach generation, sales conversation summarization, and follow-up recommendations.
- By leveraging Large Language Models (LLMs), agentic AI workflows, CRM integrations, and sales intelligence analytics, the platform enables sales teams to focus on relationship building and revenue generation.
- The solution improves lead conversion rates, streamlines sales operations, and enhances decision-making through actionable AI-driven insights.

Outcomes

- Centralized prospect and lead management platform.
- AI-powered company profile analysis and lead intelligence generation.
- Personalized cold email and outreach message generation.
- Automated lead scoring based on conversion probability.
- AI-generated follow-up strategies and sales recommendations.
- Meeting and sales conversation summarization.
- CRM integration for seamless sales workflow management.
- Sales performance analytics and business intelligence dashboard.
